

The shorter line is the primary line and should be connected to camera #1 (camera on the truck). The longer line is the secondary line and should be connected to camera #2 (camera on the trailer).

Note: This switcher box was designed to work exclusively with Verity systems. Our monitors are designed to pair with the switcher box.